“Literacy Alive Reading Club”

Our Reading Club on Saturday, 25th October, 2008 was a fun morning indeed. One of our special dads, Kurt Walmsley, put his training to the test as the children read out loud, made objects using clay and also picked their own word to define and use in sentences. A job well done to Kurt and the Applied Scholastics tutors and mothers that assisted. Please enjoy the photos from our Reading Club:

We have
at the Reading Club.

The “Applied Scholastics Literacy Alive Reading Club” is a great opportunity for parents to observe how children learn to read and comprehend at an Applied Scholastics Centre.

Children learn how to sound out words, learn the importance of knowing what words mean and have fun expressing their ideas and thoughts using clay.

Our reading club is a free service we like to offer to the public.

Held on the 2nd and 4th Saturday of each month from 10am to 12pm at Suite 3, Belgravia House, 25 Belgravia Street, Belmont. Phone 9277 2306 to reserve your seat.

Reading Club Dates remaining for 2008:

- 8th & 22nd November
- 13th December
